DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE SUFFRAGE SPECTACLE IN VIRGINIA.

Whilst Ohio has refused by an immense majority suffrage to the comparatively small number of colored men in her population, Virginia, with her vast body of emancipated slaves, has just been subjected to the experiment of enforced negro suffrage in an election for a convention to form the organic law of the Commonwealth. We are much mistaken if the parade of returns from that election, and the figures, facts, and incidents connected with it, do not greatly accelerate the re-action at the North which has been manifested in the late elections in Northern States. The spectacle which has been exhibited in the Virginia election may well cause all men of any capacity of reason and forecast, even in the Radical ranks, to pause and reflect what is the end of such things. What we have just seen in Virginia is a solid organization of blacks, as completely under the control of their leaders as an army under its general in time of war, not only marching to the polls to vote down conservative intelligence, but to vote down all moderate men, including those well known as the prominent Union men of the State, and literally to hunt down, to pelt with stones and threaten to hang those of their own color who attempted to vote the Conservative ticket, and furiously to assault the police when they endeavored to protect Conservative men of their own color from their violence. One illustration, out of many, of the manner in which the leaders of the blacks in Virginia have compelled their followers to draw the line between white and black, and make allegiance to one Hunnicutt, an agrarian white Radical, instead of Union principles, the standard of qualification in the late election of delegates to the convention, is the defeat of Franklin Stearns, Esq., in the County of Henrico. Mr. Stearns is a Northern man by birth, an original Union man of the strongest kind, a gentleman of high character, great energy, and fine business talents, and has large interests identified with the welfare of Richmond and Virginia. This gentleman, recognized as one of the most influential Republicans of Virginia, has been beaten by the president of a local negro league, who is understood not to have received a white vote in the county. Mr. Stearns had been altogether disinclined to go to the Convention, and only consented in order to save the county from being represented by a man thoroughly incompetent. Another case is that of a well-known leading Republican, Lewis McKenzie, Esq., of Alexandria, a gentleman of talent and political experience, formerly justly acknowledged by the colored men as one of their "best friends," who received only ninety-nine votes, while the selected chief of the extremists received 1,487.

The frauds in registration; the injustice of this apportionment, which, with a large white majority in the State, so arranged the districts as to insure a majority to the blacks in the Convention; the contemptuous arraying of the blacks against old Union men; the infuriated and blood-thirsty assaults upon those of their own color, who declined to vote their ticket, and whose lives were only saved by the interposition of the military and the police, furnish ample food for reflection to all in the North who read the returns of the Virginia election, and will intensify the re-actionary tide which has already set in so strongly from Ohio, Pennsylvania, and other Northern States, and has compelled Radical leaders like Chief Justice Chase and the Governor elect of Ohio, feeling the ground giving way under them, to abandon an untenable and impracticable position and seek safety in more conservative ideas.

Anything so ridiculous and monstrous cannot stand—the evil must in time cure itself.—Baltimore Sun.

HOW JUDGE THURMAN, OF OHIO, INTERPRETS THE "RE ACTION."

At a Democratic jollification meeting in Alleghany city, Ohio, on the night of the 19th inst., Judge Thurman, late Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, after the platform on which he was speaking fell and interrupted the meeting for a time, said:

"On the second Tuesday of this month I got a little bit of a fall; but it did'nt hurt me a bit more than this little fall to night, and that is just nothing at all. [Laughter.] Now, my friends, when the platform fell down I was asking the question what is the meaning of these Democratic victories this year? What is it that binds the great Middle States of Ohio and Pennsylvania in the bonds of a political union? What is it that makes Delaware, and Maryland, and Kentucky cling to us as their great hope in the dark future with which they are threatened? What is it that has given us our gains in Indiana, Illinois, Montana, and Colorado? To me it seems that the answer is plain. To me it seems that the meaning of all this is: First, that the American people are not prepared to surrender constitutional government; secondly, that the white race is not prepared to surrender its manhood and all its glorious traditions, and become serfs of the black race; thirdly, that the magnanimous and sensible people of the republic are not willing to see the South converted into a Poland and governed by a military despotism; fourthly, that they are not willing to see the material prosperity of their country destroyed in order to perpetuate the power of a party; fifthly, that they are not willing to see the land groan for a thousand years perhaps under a burden of debt and taxation such as this world never before saw, when it may all be honorably paid within the lifetime of a generation without repudiation and without injustice; and, finally, that they are not willing longer to commit our destinies to rulers whose corruption has squandered our treasury, given away our property and brought us to the very verge of national bankruptcy. This, it seems to me, is the lesson of the hour, and I thank my Maker that we have learned it before it is too late.'

THE SPIRIT OF THE LATE CONTEST.

The spirit of the late election in this State will be very incorrectly understood in the North, if it be fancied there that one of the parties was actuated by a desire to promote reconstruction and the other by the disposition to obstruct it, or that one party represented Republicanism as it is espoused by respectable and intelligent men in the North, while the other stood in partizan antagonism to it. These were not the issues in the contest or the inspiring motives of the contestants. The prime and principal thing against which the Conservatives struggled was the supremacy of the negro race and the subordination of the white race.—The second one, which was incidental to the first, was the triumph of an ignorant, vindictive and agrarian Radicalism that threatened to throw the muniments of law and the institutions of government into chaotic disorder, and to subvert the very foundations of society. Against these things we made what resistance we could, and made it in the spirit of men who are contending for life, for liberty, for property, and whatever else is valuable.

As to the other side, it may be said, without the least exaggeration or coloring, that the idea of promoting reconstruction, or of sustaining the Republican party as the advocate or exponent of any principle or purpose that any decent member of that party would be willing to avow, never once entered the heads of the negroes. In its stead was only some vague but intense belief, some lawless and unnatural expectation that by supporting the Radical candidates they (the negroes) would in some way come into possession of the property and the social superiority belonging to the whites. An upturning and overturning of the state of things was what they were blindly aiming at. The handful of white Radicals, of course, did not share these ideas. They saw their advantage in other ways, but they were very careful not to discourage the common negro insanity.

We have here very briefly but very candidly stated the issues and the animus of the late contest. We ask Northern men to consider calmly what is to be the result in Virginia and the other Southern States of the political ascendancy of the negro race.—Rich. Whig.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Wilmsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward, "Via Petersburg."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways ☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston D. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

ELECTION TICKETS!!

We were misled by others, without giving it any reflection, in supposing that the Election Tickets should be printed on both sides. It is evident that this is not only not necessary, but that it is objectionable, inconvenient and more expensive than necessary.

The tickets should be printed on one side, thus:

For a Convention.
(or, as the case may be,)
Against a Convention.

(Here print the name or names of delegates.)

Such tickets, for the Conservative candidates, will be provided for $1.25 cash per 1,000, postage paid, at this office. Orders are invited. The cash must accompany the orders.

THE MEETING ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

This meeting was a very full and enthusiastic one. Many of both races were present, and many could not get into the hall.

M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., took the chair amid much applause, and briefly explained the object of the meeting, in a most felicitous and telling speech, which was received with rounds of applause. After the organization was effected, loud calls were made for Judge Merrimon, to which he responded:

Judge Merrimon arose amid rounds of cordial greeting, and proceeded to thank the audience for the cordial demonstrations which greeted him. He did not come before them as a partizan. He did not regard the Conservative movement as a partizan movement. If he so understood it, he could not participate. The government was in imminent peril, never more so, and he regarded this movement as an honest, spontaneous uprising of the Conservative people, of all the old parties, to restore the Constitution and the Union to their wonted force and power, and to put down the revolutionary spirit of the country.

He said that our people were fast being educated to oppression; they seem to have succumbed to the clamor of the revolutionists; they have been called "rebels and traitors" so long, that they have come to suppose that they have "no rights" under the Constitution. He had come to show the people that they still had rights under the Constitution, and that those rights must not be yielded without an effort to maintain them.

He reviewed the contests of parties, and the struggles of ultra-revolutionary men against the sacred principles of the Constitution, from 1820 to 1861, both North and South. He showed that partyism, the lust of partizan power and ultra-revolutionary men were at the bottom of all the difficulties of the country, striking at the very heart's-blood of the Constitution, until the war was forced upon the country. Judge Merrimon said that he had always been for the Union and the Constitution. He regarded secession and the war as a fatal blunder, which he never could sanction as either necessary or wise. He regarded the whole business, from beginning to end, as revolutionary and unfortunate, yet he had never felt an emotion, which would prompt him to attribute to the brave men who fought and fell in the struggle dishonorable motives or purposes. As a North Carolinian, who venerated the Constitution and the Union as the great bulwarks of civil liberty, he sympathized with his own people, though he believed they were mistaken; and, said he, let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth and my arm be palsied, before I could ever forget, or be unkind to, or reflect upon, those brave and gallant spirits who fought and bled in a "lost cause," or the widows and children of those brave men who fell in the clash of arms. The memory of these heroic men will never be forgotten.

Judge Merrimon explained the character of the government, showing the status of the State and Federal governments. He showed that, under the Constitution, that status was not altered either during the war or since the war; that secession was a revolutionary movement and nothing else, and that the revolution, being a failure, could give no validity to the acts of the revolutionists, but that the official acts of the States and of their officers, being de facto governments, were invalid, except such acts as were in accordance with the Constitution of the United States and the laws made in conformity thereto, which were as valid as it there had been no revolution.—He admitted that the war was revolutionary and a rebellion; that the endorsers, supporters and participants in the revolution were all legal rebels, and liable to punishment for the crime of treason. But he contended that rebel officials could nevertheless do legal and valid acts, and that rebels and traitors had rights under the Constitution of which they could not be deprived, otherwise than by revolutionary measures. That while he admitted that, at the close of the war, every man was guilty of promoting rebellion against the government of the United States, and that the war power of the government was ample to enforce its laws and put down the rebellion, yet every man had the right of trial by jury before a proper civil Court, and that the taking of a man's life otherwise was murder, and the trying man for offences against the civil law, by military Courts or Commissions, was revolutionary and unauthorized by the Constitution. But the President, in the exercise of his pardoning power, as all magnanimous governments had done, had granted a full pardon to the great body of the people, thus cancelling their guilt, or declaring them innocent; that hence they were no longer "rebels or traitors," but declared pardoned and restored to all their former rights and privileges, as if nothing had happened. No lawyer would say that, after this action by the President, any branch of the government had the power to disfranchise or to inflict any punishment whatever upon these men, nor to confiscate their property. The Constitution covered every one of them with its protection, and all attempts to punish them in any way, for the offences for which they were pardoned, were wholly revolutionary and unauthorized. Hence, you see your rights under the Constitution You are no longer rebels and traitors, and no man has the right to call you so, nor can you be disfranchised or punished in any way, under the Constitution, except for subsequent violations of the law.

He declared that while he attributed no improper motive to the President, his policy of reconstruction was revolutionary, as was also the policy of Congress. He declared it to be his conviction, as a lawyer, that the only constitutional plan of settlement, which had been proposed at all, was the one proposed in the articles of surrender, between Major General Sherman, of the U. S. army, and Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, of the Confederate army. Those two great military men had initiated the only constitutional, wise and easy solution of the difficulties of the nation, and no man of reflection in North Carolina doubted but that, if their plan had been accepted and carried out at once, the whole nation would now have been at one accord, and the Union and the old flag would have been ineradicably fixed in the hearts and affections of the Southern people. Alas! that it was not adopted. The President had declared the war at an end. Yet still the war of revolution raged. Our only hope is in a restored Constitution and Union. For this we must toil and strive. He believed the sober second thought of this great nation, and their inborn love of the Constitution and the Union, were rallying them to the rescue.—He believed the reaction would go on, until the triumph of the Constitution would be complete,—an event he should hail with gladness and joy.

As to the Congressional plan of reconstruction, he believed, with Mr. Stevens, that it was unconstitutional and unauthorized, but he nevertheless believed it best for our people, who were enfranchised, to register and to vote for good, honest, true men to go to the Convention.

Here the strength of the Speaker was evidently over taxed. It was evident that the scope of his speech was so large that it would have required four or five hours fully to elaborate it. Having spoken over two hours, he was obliged to close, without dwelling upon those points which stood more immediately connected with the present crisis. Many portions of the speech excited rapturous applause, and at some points the excitement was intense. What we have given is an imperfect outline. The speech throughout was one of great ability. The Constitutional argument was overwhelming.

The committee here made their report, after which there were loud calls for Mr. Badger and Mr. Gales, but the hour was too late and these gentlemen did not respond.

The total vote of Richmond is upwards of 10,000. The majority for the Hunnicutt ticket is between three and four hundred. The number of whites in the entire City who voted for the Radical ticket was only forty-eight; and the number of blacks, who voted the Conservative ticket, was only twenty six, and they did so at the risk of their lives.

There is too great reason to apprehend that the same broad, deep, blood-red line, under the teachings of the Leagues and the evil influences of a few bad and selfish white men, will be drawn in North Carolina. Already, we see that a correspondent of the Wilmington Post (Radical) predicts that there will not be "a dozen Conservative votes in North Carolina from colored men." The white man, in view of such indications of a purpose to convert the ten excluded States into black States, who lends his aid and voice to ultra-Radicalism, is an enemy to his country and a traitor to his race and color.

New York.—The elections in this great State take place on Tuesday next. While we have decided hopes that the Radicals will be defeated in the State, we think it proper to warn our friends not to be too sanguine in their expectations. The Radicals are making an active canvass, while the Democrats and Conservatives, who have everything in their favor, are comparatively dormant. At Washington, a large corruption fund exists, which has been raised by the standing army of Radical office holders, State and Federal, and which is being lavishly scattered all over the State for the purpose of carrying the election. Still, as we have said, we feel but little doubt that the reaction, which has been commenced so auspiciously in Ohio and Pennsylvania, will also sweep over the State of New York.

The Richmond Southern Opinion charges that Gen. Schofield knew that the reason urged by the Hunnicutt cabal for extending the time of voting in that city through Thursday last was a ruse to carry the elections by fraud. The assertion was openly made, by negroes, on the streets, that "Gen Schofield had said he would keep the polls open until the negroes beat the whites, though it took a month!"

A negro orator, who spoke at the late black-Radical meeting, at the Court House, in this City, expressed a desire to see a photograph of any colored man who would vote the Conservative ticket.

It would be a rich group for a daguerreotype,—the insignificant squad of white Radicals in Raleigh, who are in favor of Brownlowizing and Africanizing North Carolina! Their phizes would spoil any ordinary apparatus.

Brownlow goes to the United States Senate and Underwood and Hunnicutt to the Virginia Convention. Such is Radicalism. No wonder it stinks in the nostrils of the Northern people. They have tried it, and become disgusted with it.

JUDGE FOWLE DECLINES.

The Conservatives of Wake will read the following letter from Judge Fowle with much regret. We believe that the Conservative people of the County were very generally looking to him as one of the standard-bearers of their cause in this County, at the present crisis. Every man is the best judge of his own affairs and of the sacrifices he will have to make to serve the people. Judge Fowle has pondered the matter well and declines to serve. The County Convention, therefore, on Thursday next, must fully survey the ground, weigh well the hazards of defeat, and select the very best men, who are honest and capable and fully committed to the principles and aims of the Conservative men. Honesty, capability, soundness of principle and availability, must rule the selection, in order to success. We are committed in favor of no man or against no man, who is a sound Conservative. Nor have we any choice of men beyond this. We received Judge Fowle's letter too late on Saturday night for yesterday's paper.

Raleigh, Oct. 26th, 1867.

Messrs. Pell and Gales:

Gentlemen:—I was informed this afternoon that I was nominated to-day, at Auburn, for a seat in the approaching Convention, I am deeply sensible of the compliment, but am so situated that it would be impossible for me to give that attention to the canvass which the emergency demands, and I, therefore, ask that you will announce that I cannot be a candidate. My sympathies are entirely with the Conservative men, and opposed to the Radical element, which, if successful, will bring woes unnumbered upon our much loved State.

My support will be given to the nominees of the Convention to be held in Raleigh on Thursday next, and I trust that the people of Wake County will show, by their votes, that whilst the fullest justice will be done to the colored race, they will be governed in the future, as in the past, by the Anglo Saxon race, which the teachings of history demonstrate is the only safe custodian of true constitutional liberty.

Yours respectfully,
DANIEL G. FOWLE.

It is stated that the Radical Executive Committee, at Washington, sent $10,000 to Richmond, to be used among the negroes before the election.

Thousands of dollars, from the same source, are being used in this State. The money is employed mainly in paying negro orators to go about exciting their race against the whites.

CONSERVATIVE RALLY IN WAKE.

The Court House in Raleigh was filled to overflowing, on Saturday night, on occasion of the great rally of the Conservatives of the city.

On motion of Seaton Gales, Esq., the meeting was organized by the appointment of M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., as Chairman. Mr. Bledsoe, on assuming the chair, made a stirring and eloquent speech, which was received with great enthusiasm.

The organization was further completed by the appointment of the following officers, viz:

Vice Presidents: Messrs. Jeptha Horton, M. B. Royster, J. H. Sparks, P. C. Fleming and W. J. Armstrong.

Secretaries: Wm. Simpson and John G. Bagwell.

On motion of R. C. Badger, Esq., a Committee of five from each Ward were directed to be appointed to report business for the consideration of the meeting.

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen to constitute said Committee:

Middle Ward—R. C. Badger, Seaton Gales, W. H. Jones, H. T. Clawson and Wm Simpson.

Eastern Ward—J. A. Moore, W. O. Upchurch, Alfred Upchurch, D. L. Royster and W. D. Williams.

Western Ward—Jno. C. Palmer, J. J. Guthrie, P. C. Fleming, J. M. Betts and John Myatt.

After the Committee had retired, Judge A. S. Merrimon, being loudly called for, addressed the meeting, for upwards of two hours, in a speech of great power and ability.

The Committee subsequently reported, through Mr. Badger, the following resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation, viz:

The Constitutional Union men of the City of Raleigh, without regard to former party connections, being deeply impressed with the dangers which threaten their liberties and their constitutional form of government, declaring their unalterable attachment to civil liberty, and their warm and hearty devotion to the Constitution of their country and the Union of the States thereunder; and expressing the earnest hope that the good sense and patriotism of the nation may speedily restore to them their rights as guaranteed in the Constitution of the Union: do

Resolve, That they will unite with the Constitutional Union men of Wake County, in electing to the coming Convention four (4) men true to these great fundamental principles; and, for that purpose, that 50 delegates be appointed to the County Convention, to be held in this place, on Thursday next, the 31st. day of October.

Resolved, That having entire confidence that the County Convention will select none but good, true, constitution-loving, conservative men to represent us in the State Convention, when called, we hereby pledge ourselves, merging all personal preferences, to support the nominations that may be made.

Upon the recommendation of the Committee, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the County Convention:

Middle Ward: Messrs. R. C. Badger, H. T. Clawson, David Lewis, H. I. Hesselbach, J. M. Blair, R. B. Andrews, Stanhope Pulliam, H. Mahler, C. B. Root, C. W. Lambeth, G. B. Bagwell, W. C. Stronach, C. Kuester, C. H. Westhers, Seaton Gales, John C. Gorman, J. Q. DeCarteret, Isaac Oettinger.

Western Ward: Messrs. James Dodd, J. H. Sparks, Jeptha Horton, C. D. Lipscomb, J. C. Palmer, James Litchford, Sr., Anderson Betts, W. H. Cunninggim, Rufus Page, Wm. F. Askew, E. E. Harris, E. Macy, John Myatt, Parker Overby, Wm. Andrews, Robert Dobbin, J. J. Guthrie, Jr., James Pleasants, W. G. Hill, Peter Fleming.

Eastern Ward: Messrs J. B. Neathery, D. L. Royster, J. P. H. Russ, John King, P. Babcock, N. S. Harp, J. J. Overby, W. C. Upchurch, Alfred Upchurch, J. G. Bagwell, Thos. Scarlet, M. B. Barbee, J. Q. A. Crane, A. Kline, M. Grausman, Dr. W. H. McKee, John Ray, Zach Potter, J. B. Bachalan, J. J. Ferrell.

On motion, the names of the officers of the meeting were added to the list of delegates.

Messrs. Badger, Gales, and others, were called on, but, owing to the lateness of the hours, these gentlemen not responding,

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

LETTERS OF "ITINERANT"

October 24th, 1867.

"CATAWBA STATION—LIME."

For some distance West of Statesville, the Western North Carolina Rail Road runs parallel with the Catawba River. Almost directly on the river lies Catawba Station, a point of growing interest in the development of the lime business. Two enterprising gentlemen (Powell, Wilson & Co.,) some time ago established a lime kiln near this spot, in the midst of the lime stone deposits of Catawba County. The business has grown, until at present the capacity for burning lime has reached two hundred tons per month, the major part of which is sold and the demand increases. The material for making the lime exists indefinitely.—Additional kilns are in contemplation, and the owners of the limestone are determined to make the number of kilns equal the demand, go where it may.

Lime, as a fertilizer, has never been fully appreciated by our farmers, but, judging from the appearance of things at Catawba Station, one is led to conclude that the secret is becoming known.

NEWTON.

This beautiful little county town lies at the end of a "switch" of the Western R. R. Switching off of the main stem, at the Y, three miles from the place, you are soon at the town, and a healthy and prosperous little place at that. Newton is quite a market for fine iron. It lies near the famous iron ore of Catawba and Lincoln counties. The Western N. C. R. R. and the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Road are not over some twenty miles apart, at this point, the latter road being famous for the exportation of iron.

I have rarely ever seen finer wheat than that produced on the red lands of Catawba county, i. e. the grain itself. It is very white, quite plump and sound, and would make good seed wheat to send to Michigan to accommodate farmers in that latitude.

HICKORY STATION.

This is the "getting off place" for the White Sulphur Springs, the summer retreat of your correspondent "F. D." There are some things no man can ever succeed in doing. For instance, he cannot paint a lily. I shall therefore leave the White Sulphur Springs, just where F. D. has left them.

Your Tide-water Correspondent, however, must consent to a short eclipse, in his graphic accounts of Morehead City.

The cars from the East were detained near Greensborough, on account of a "hot box." While the train was standing and almost a total stillness prevailed in my car, the silence was broken by the voice of one of those old persons, who not only form a connecting link between two generations, but whose unsophisticated simplicity is a perfect antipode to the follies of the young people of the present time. She addressed an old man who occupied a seat near by: "Well sir, I've jest got away from Morehead City, and I do tell you that it is the last place in the world. I felt the funderest off that of any place I ever was in. I went down to see my son, and whatever tuck him to Morehead patience only knows.—One half of the people lives on the sound, just what they can get out of the water, oysters, clams and fish. Well, sir, I seed a very big whale at Morehead."

"A whale!" exclaimed the old man. "Yes sir, a whale, seventy five feet long! He laid out in the river. They cut him up for oil. Well, sir, his skin was as black and as slick as patent leather."

THE WESTERN N. C. RAILROAD.

The general appearance of the line of the Western N. C. R. R. is cheering. All seem anxious for business and prosperity. There is an air of industry and attention to business which goes far to show how much more the people are interested in the industrial pursuits of life, than in party politics.

This Road runs through a most inviting portion of North Carolina,—Iredell, Catawba and Burke Counties.

PRESIDENT TATE.

Few men are favored with greater personal popularity than Col. S. McD. Tate, the President of the Western North Carolina Railroad. At the expiration of his first year, he was re-elected almost unanimously, receiving thirteen thousand one hundred and eighty three, out of thirteen thousand one hundred and eighty five stock votes. These two odd votes will probably be given to the Colonel next time. At all events he merits the compliment, for I rarely ever saw more unanimity than is manifested for Col. Tate, along the whole Road.

Fewer Roads in the country wear a more cheerful aspect than this Western N. C. Railroad. It is finished up to Morganton, and under contract up to the Blue Ridge. The finished part is not only finished, but it is one of the neatest looking of Railroads. The ditching of cuts, and the style of the Road generally, cars and all, is refreshing. It is to go to Tennessee. At present, some eighty out of two hundred miles or so are done. As yet no through freight or travel. Yet "doing well for the times" and going ahead.

One of the most refreshing sights of the season is the busy movements of the pick and shovel, on the route of the Western North Carolina Railroad. It looks like "good times" coming.

LENOIR.

A more retired or picturesque place can hardly be imagined than the little town of Lenoir, the capital of Caldwell county. If Lenoir is a French word, as it seems to be, it is badly named; for although a mountain town it is far from being what the name implies.

The Female College here is in fine repute, and very justly, if health and good teaching be what young ladies are in search of.

This is near the home of Rufus Lenoir Patterson, a sort of a model of a man.

The town of Morganton, the present terminus of the Western N. C. R. R., is my resting place but for the time. Here I bid farewell, for a while, to Rail Roads, and, after the fashion of the old four miles an hour, jog my way, still keeping to the West, over many a hill, now and then a mountain. I aim first of all for Asheville, but will write you, "if I see anything," from a point West of Buncombe.

ITINERANT.

"My Land and Mule."—We have the statement from an unquestionable source, that at one of the precincts in Amherst county, on election day, a negro, after voting, said to the officer in charge that he wanted his "forty acres of land and his mule." An explanation being asked for, he stated that he had been told that every negro who voted was to have forty acres of land and a mule given him, immediately after voting, and he wanted his then and there. The disappointment, disgust and indignation of the deluded darkey were intense, when told that he had been fooled, and that neither land nor mule were there for him. The old negro further said that numbers of others on the ground had also been told the same that he was, and had come to the election with the same bright anticipations of the riches that were to be theirs.—Lynchburg Virginian.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING AT AUBURN.

At a large meeting of the Conservatives of Auburn District, held on the 26th inst. Berry Bagwell, Esq., was called to the chair and Messrs. W. L. Riley and G. W. Crockett requested to act as Secretaries.

On motion, the Chairman appointed the following Committee to report matter for the consideration of the meeting, viz: Messrs. J. H. Poole, Hardy Poole, Hardy Britt, Alvin DuPre and Dr. L. C. Manly.

The Committee, through their Chairman, reported the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That the Chairman be requested to appoint delegates to the County Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on Thursday next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Convention; and that we suggest, as our preference, the following gentlemen, viz: Rev. B. T. Blake, Hon. D. G. Fowle, Dr. W. J. Busbee and J. J. Overby, Esq.

Col. Russ, being called on, delivered one of his finest efforts, to the great delight and entertainment of the audience.

Col. Faribault next, in reply to repeated calls, addressed the meeting, in a manner that greatly gratified his neighbors and friends. His effort was admirable throughout.

Capt. C. N. Allen, also, in response to calls, made a most excellent speech.

The meeting then adjourned.

A FORMAL PROTEST AGAINST THE EXTENSION OF THE TIME OF VOTING AFTER SUNSET WEDNESDAY EVENING.

We learn that our townsman John. H. Gilmer has filed with General Schofield a formal protest, in his own behalf, as a resident and voter of this city, against the counting of any vote recorded in this city at any of the precincts after sunset Wednesday evening.

We learn that the first objection relied upon by Mr. Gilmer is based upon the second section of the supplemental bill of Congress embraced in General Order No. 33; from which we make the following quotation:

"Section 2. And be it further enacted, That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State, at such time and places therein as the commanding General shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty days public notice shall be given, election shall be held," &c.

Mr. Gilmer relies upon this point in the law as limiting the General in his order to the time designated in the order, and argues it at length.

In the second place, upon the full proof of the most palpable frauds and shameless prostitution of the right of suffrage, the open manufacture of colored votes, the deliberate and persistent cowering of colored Conservative voters by the colored police in the special employment of Colonel Thomas E. Rose.

In alluding to the conduct of Colonel Rose as official superintendent of the election, we learn that Mr. Gilmer says "it will be proven, and this beyond doubt, that in various instances Colonel Rose was repeatedly guilty of the grossest misconduct, rudeness, and official insolence to the very best (some of them our oldest) citizens, and thus without provocation. That he connived at fraud, and was, in my opinion, a party to it. This I mean in its full force. If he denies it, let him so far honor his official straps and insignia as to demand a court of inquiry; and I pledge myself to prove at least that he was in repeated instances guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."—Rich. Dispatch.

The Boston Post thus tells the whole story of the Radical opposition to a restoration of the Union:

Why don't they reconstruct the Southern States,
Who stand repentant knocking at our gates?
"It seems to me," says Simple, "'tis a sin
Now they've repented, not to let them in"
"It would not do," says Wade, "for past a doubt,
If they come in, our party must go out."

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

IN OBEDIENCE to a decree of the Superior Court of Law for the County of Franklin, I shall proceed to sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door, in the town of Louisburg, on Tuesday the 10th day of December, 1867, all the Real Estate of Passon Nichols, deceased, (subject to the dower of his widow,) lying in the Counties of Franklin and Nash, consisting of

Two Hundred and Sixty-four Acres, adjoining the lands of Dr. Gray Sills and Dr. Jno. W. Jackson and Benjamin Whelss.

The said land will be sold under the decree of the Court, to make assets for the payment of debts. It lies within less than one mile of a good and permanent school and a Church, in a healthy, moral and intelligent community, and presents a most favorable opportunity for persons wishing to find a pleasant home. All such are invited to examine for themselves.

SEVERE STORM.—One of the heaviest rain storms experienced for several years has been prevailing since Sunday afternoon. We fear that its effects will be very destructive on the coast, as it has been accompanied by quite a severe wind.

SPECIAL TERM.—Gov. Worth has designated His Honor, Judge Warren, to hold the Special Term of the Superior Court, ordered by Judge Mitchell, to be held for the county of Guilford, commencing on the second Monday in December next.

VOTERS TAKE NOTICE!—Agreeably to instructions, the First Board of Registration for the County of Wake will be in session in this City, for the purpose of revising the list of voters, according to the terms of the Acts of Congress, from the morning of the 5th., to 4 o'clock, P. M., of the 9th., of November. They will hold their sessions at the house of Mr. Theo. Joseph, corner of Hargett and Salisbury Sts.

The Third Board will also establish their headquarters at Nat. Jones', in the county, on the 5th. of November and remain in session for five days. Voters at Barney Jones', Nat Jones', Busbee's, J. Jones', Upchurch's and Du Pre's, will take notice.

We have heard nothing from the Second Board.

Let no one, who has not heretofore registered, fail to do so now. The recent elections in Virginia teach a lesson, which it will be criminal to disregard.

COTTON PICKING.—We learn that, on Saturday, Oct. 19th., the hands on the plantation cultivated by Judge Fowle and John Pugh Haywood, Esq., at Rogers' Cross Roads, in this county, picked, for prizes, with the following result:

John Brodie,	379 lbs.
Allen Rogers,	374 "
Henry Temple,	316 "
Joe Womach,	307 "
Henry Peoples,	304 "

Pretty good picking, before frost.

Mr. Jno. Fort had the superintendence of hands and plantation.

EARLY TIMES IN RALEIGH: Addresses delivered by the Hon. D. L. Swain, LL. D., at the dedication of Tucker Hall, and on the occasion of the completion of the Monument to Jacob Johnson; with maps of the City of Raleigh, for the years 1792, 1834 and 1847. Compiled by R. S. Tucker. Raleigh: Walters, Hughes & Co.

We acknowledge our obligations to the Compiler and Publishers for copies of this interesting and neatly-printed little book. It is gotten up in capital style, every way, and forms an invaluable acquisition to our local history. It embraces about 90 pages, exclusive of the maps.

We have heretofore spoken of both of the efforts of Gov. Swain in terms of high commendation. He deserves the thanks of our citizens for the graphic and excellent manner in which he has traced the history of our dear, goodly old City. Probably no other man in the State could have done it half so well.

Mr. R. S. Tucker, the Compiler, who merits the credit of presenting these addresses in so attractive a style, and of having the accompanying maps lithographed, has also grouped many facts, which, taken in connection with the main features of the publication, afford us a complete and satisfactory sketch of the olden times. The whole arrangement is creditable to his judgment, taste and devotion to the interests and good name of the City of Oaks.

The following table of contents affords a bird's eye view of the character and scope of the work:

1. The Addresses. 2. Description of Tucker Hall, copied from the Daily Sentinel of Aug. 28. 3. Charter of the City. 4. Plan of the City,—Number of lots and names of purchasers; 1792. 5. Raleigh,—North Carolina,—The University. 6. Adult Male Population of the City. 7. Copy of a letter from Judge Potter to Judge Cameron, specifying the sales of lots, with accompanying diagram. 8. Map of the City: 1834. 9. Map of the City: 1847.

This book is for sale at the Book-stores and at Tucker Hall. Price only fifty cents.

COTTON.—It will be refreshing news to our Cotton planters, that Cotton moves slowly upward. It sold in New York, yesterday, at 30½ cents.

MESSRS. TOLAR, POWERS AND WATKINS.—The following is a copy of the petition in circulation, invoking the Executive clemency in behalf of these gentlemen, supposed to have been sentenced to death by the recent Military Commission in this City:

To the President of the United States:

The undersigned, citizens of North Carolina, respectfully represent:

That on Sunday evening, the 10th day of February of the present year, a respectable young girl, returning from Church to her home in the vicinity of Fayetteville, was met in the suburbs of the town, assaulted, dragged from the public highway, and most brutally outraged. That on the night of the same day, one Archie Bebee, a colored man, was arrested by the police of Fayetteville, charged with the commission of the crime, and on Monday, February 11th, the said Archie Bebee was brought before certain Magistrates of the County of Cumberland for his preliminary examination upon the charge before-mentioned; that at said examination the prisoner Bebee was fully identified by the oath of the young lady upon whom the assault had been committed, and by other testimony, and by the Magistrates aforesaid was committed to await his trial at the next term of the Superior Court for Cumberland County. Your petitioners represent, that the report of this crime produced great indignation in the minds of the whole community, and that a large crowd of citizens, both white and colored, assembled to hear the preliminary examination of the accused; that after the examination the young lady passed through the assembled crowd from the Court room to a carriage; that a handkerchief falling from her neck revealed the marks of the brutal clutch of the ravisher's fingers upon her throat, and that the crowd, already excited, became frantic with indignation. The prisoner being brought out a few moments after, was set upon and killed by a pistol-shot fired from the midst of the crowd, and thus a swift retribution followed his offence.

Those of your petitioners who know anything of the facts of the killing, asseverate most solemnly that they believe the whole affair to have been the offspring of the excitement of the moment, and entirely without premeditation or concerted action.

In the month of May last, William J. Tolar, Thomas Powers and David Watkins were arrested by order of Major General Daniel E. Sickles, then commanding the Second Military District, and in July following were brought to trial before a Military Commission assembled in Raleigh, North Carolina: that at said trial an immense amount of testimony was elicited, of most conflicting character. That after a long and laborious trial, the prisoners have been remanded to prison, and it is understood have been found guilty and sentenced to death. That, according to the course of Military trials, the decision of the Court cannot be known until acted upon by the President.

Your petitioners, therefore, uncertain as to the finding of the Court, but believing it to have been adverse to the prisoners, desire to bring the matter before you, and most earnestly to beg, in behalf of these unfortunate men, your clemency and pardon.

William J. Tolar, the prisoner charged with the firing of the pistol, is a peaceable, quiet, orderly citizen and Christian man, who commands the respect and esteem of all who know him; he is the head of a large and helpless family, who now await in agonized suspense the fate of a beloved husband and father. And your petitioners represent that several highly respectable witnesses, whose characters cannot be impeached, have sworn most positively that Mr. Tolar did not fire the shot.

Thomas Powers is the uncle of the outraged female and her nearest male protector, her father being long since dead.

David Watkins is a rash and excitable young man, the principal proof against whom is that, after the death of Bebee, he made some riotous demonstrations and attempts to cut the body.

Your petitioners do not justify this infraction of the law, but they entreat the President's pardon to these unhappy men; they sincerely believe that the ends of justice have been more than served. The brutal fiend, who attempted to gratify his lusts upon the person of virtue and innocence, lies in his grave; an old and respected citizen, arrested upon a charge of complicity in the killing of Bebee, incarcerated for several months and at length released because no shadow of testimony could be found against him except that of an infamous woman, who was proven to have sworn falsely, now languishes on a bed of sickness, the result of his imprisonment, with little prospect of a sure recovery. Several other of the most respectable young men of the town, now lying in jail awaiting trial for the same offense—the gray-headed father of one of them gone to his grave, leaving his innocent son the tenant of a felon's dungeon; a whole community plunged into the utmost anxiety and distress, and a fair young girl ruined for life. Enough of suffering has been occasioned by this terrible episode in the life of a quiet and peaceful town.

Your petitioners, therefore, beg that you will extend your pardon to all concerned in this transaction; draw a vail over the dark page; restore the husband and father to his afflicted family; open the prison-doors to these young men and let them go free. And thus you will add to the already heavy weight of gratitude borne to you by the citizens of North Carolina; and by mercy, mingled with judgment, teach us to honor and reverence that government to which we have of late pledged a renewed and a sincere allegiance.

Governor Worth, of North Carolina, has been to Columbia, S. C., to meet General Canby. The Chronicle, of that city, describes him as "a quiet little old gentleman, sharp as a briar, and with a well of wisdom at the root of every grey hair."—Boston Advertiser.

The Columbia Chronicle has, in brief, measured the noble old Roman, our Quaker Governor, more correctly than he could have done it in a column. It is laconic, but true.—Sentinel.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT.—A very large and enthusiastic jollification of the Democracy was held in Hamilton, Butler county, Ohio, on Saturday evening. Several thousand jubilant Democrats participated. The first part of the programme was a torchlight procession, in which were to be noticed many very ingenious transparencies. The best hit was "Ben. Wade and found wanting," which represented a pair of scales with the Ohio Senator in one end and a gentleman of African descent in the other. The latter was altogether too heavy for the former, and weighed him down; the moral being that the darkey was too much for old Ben in the recent elections.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON,

WASHINGTON, Oct 28, M.

Congress, which assembles on the 31st, proximo, is constituted as follows: Senate, Republicans 43; Opposition 12; House Republicans 144; Opposition 49.

Hon. S. P. Walker, of Alabama, is here.

Pope declines changing the Georgia districts. He reported to Grant that he reflected two days before adopting them. It is fair to say that the President's endorsation of the complaint amounted to a strong protest.

Grant's answer to the President mildly agrees with his [the President's] views, but expresses the apprehension that it was now too late to make any changes. Grant's endorsement, on referring the papers to Pope, has not transpired.

Tuesday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—P. M.

The British Government having declined releasing Colonels Warren and Nagle, they will be tried immediately, and the State Department here has ordered the employment of Counsel for their defence.

It is not intended by the recent Cotton regulations to require permits and bills of lading for the removal of cotton from point to point within the District where the same is produced, as in the case of the removal from such district.

A collector should not exact a fee from the tax payer for marking his cotton.

Col. Parker estimates the cost of putting the Dismal Swamp Canal in good condition at $350,000. He advises against a further expenditure upon it by the Government.

Revenue to-day, $714 000.

Proceedings were commenced by Henry B. Tyler, who went South to recover property from John Defrees, who purchased it at a confiscation sale.

THE PREVAILING STORM.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,

CASSIMERES,

SATINETS,

TWEEDS,

AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS.

LADIES' CLOAKS,

BREAKFAST SHAWLS,

SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $2,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't step until you come to CREECH'S to buy your HATS. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

Sept. 13—32-tf Fayetteville Street.

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administ

For the Sentinel.

THE CLOSE OF MAXIMILIAN'S LIFE.

A Mexican Convent, mournful and grey,
Held Prince Maximilian, the brave.
The crown from his brow was shattered away,
And on the hard tiles in anguish he lay
In bonds like a poor captive slave.

A terrible war, like a whirlwind had passed,
His legions were scattered and gone,
The knell of his hopes rang out on the blast,
"Sunk 'neath the wild waste—buried deep as the past,"
And left but a skeleton lone.

And his sun went down in his noontide prime,
Darkly down on his glowing past,
While his life on Liberty's wasted shrine,
As a royal gem to grovelling swine,
By a venomous foe was cast.

'Twas Lopez who twined his soft, slimy fold
Close around the Emperor's heart,
Basked in its warm rays within a strong hold,
Then bartered his life like Judas, for gold,
Concealing his treacherous dart.

Betrayed in the hands of a mongrel brood,
The strength from his temples was shorn,
The chivalrous prince of Austrian blood,
Who by his followers faithfully stood,
Lay helpless, deserted and torn.

Illegally tried! In vain his protest!
They hurried him on to the tomb;
The flash of their muskets played round his breast
Closer and closer the multitude pressed,
To witness his murderous doom.

He stood at the stake, with a graceful mien,
His pale face was clouded with pain;
A vision recalled his beautiful Queen,
The land of his love, its valleys of green,
Far away, beyond the blue main.

Carlotta! he cried,—then his voice was hushed,
Unerring, the volley had sped;
O'er mountain and vale the wild echoes rushed,
The blood from his veins in purple streams gushed,
The peerless Austrian was dead!

Forever dead! but his forehead was starred
"With the love that dwelt in his soul,"
It's beautiful light can never be marred,
For minstrel hands its a-tar will guard,
Nor its bearings fall back from the goal.

His noble virtues the world will admire,
His strength, in his sorrow exhibited;
While Carlotta's name the muse will inspire
To plaintive notes on the tremulous lyre,
Through the coming ages of time.

The tyrant's motto, "to murder and slay,"
Reflects an inglorious stain,
Nor distant far, is the terrible day
When some avenger, like Bruce will repay
The wrongs of the Emperor slain.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEAD-QR'S SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed Mar 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United states.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate to the Convention shall serve as a Judge or the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved 2 February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $250,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, for our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs,

WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston New York Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignees to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

NORTH CAROLINA

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE Inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40 00 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

R O U T E,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely direct your consignees to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:

Merchants' & Miner's Line, end of Central Wharf, E. Sampson, Agent.

FROM NEW YORK:

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th, and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great and labor-saving machine. It does cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it do a better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell county rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
